DALATA ACQUISITION WELL ON TRACK

PRE-CARVE OUT INTEGRATION PHASE

- Scandic has operated Dalata's hotels under a management agreement since November 7, with management fees earned from day one
- Performance in line with expectations: Operations developing as planned, supported by solid market conditions in the UK and Ireland
- Carve-out process underway: Separation of hotel operations and real estate progressing according to plan, with no changes to communicated timeline
- On track for full integration: Carve-out expected to be completed in H2 2026, enabling full consolidation of Dalata's hotel operations into Scandic

FINANCIAL UPDATE

A woman with long brown hair tied back is sitting at a wooden table in a cafe, working on a silver laptop. She is wearing a light-colored blouse. In the background, a man is sitting at a table with a woman, and another man is seated to the right. On the table, there is a white mug, a small potted plant, and a small wooden tray with two white containers. The lighting is warm and ambient, with bokeh lights visible in the background. A photograph of a Scandic hotel building during winter. The building is a multi-story structure with a dark wooden facade and light-colored trim. It features large windows and several balconies with glass railings. The roof is covered in a thick layer of white snow. In the foreground, there is a snow-covered parking lot with several cars. A person is standing near a white car on the left. On the right, a small fire pit is lit in front of a stone fireplace, with a group of people gathered around it. The sky is clear and blue. The Scandic logo is prominently displayed in red text on the roofline of the building.
